MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST BYLAWS

Article I PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."
2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.
3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

MINUTES OF THE 194TH ANNUAL MEETING of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
June 18, 19, 20, 1993
South Hadley, Massachusetts

Opening worship of the 194th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ began at 4:00 PM on Friday, June 18, 1993, in Abbey Chapel at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts. The theme of the meeting was "I Love To Tell The Story" and the Rev. Dr. David Greenhaw preached a sermon entitled "High Drama, Hard Calling," based on Isaiah 6:1-14.

After hearings on the various proposed resolutions and financial matters, the first plenary session was called to order at 8:00 PM in Chapin Auditorium of Woolley Hall by Ms. Esther Haskell, Moderator. After welcoming the delegates and giving an overview of the purpose of the Annual Meeting, Ms. Haskell led the delegates in singing the hymn upon which the theme of the meeting was based. She then announced her appointment of the Business Committee in accordance with the Bylaws: Ms. Laurel Baumer; Ms. Jeannette Boynton; Mr. John Glore; Mr. John Ober; Ms. Diane Ranney; Mr. Arthur Stock; and the Rev. Mr. Robert Wright, Jr., Chair.

The Moderator introduced the Credentials Committee, consisting of Ms. Nancy MacLeod, Chair; the Rev. Mr. Fred Anderson; the Rev. Mr. William Baran; and Ms. Joan Vander Vliet. She then called upon Ms. MacLeod who reported for the committee that there were 499 delegates, 259 clergy, 9 ex officio, 13 commissioned and/or licensed ministers, 100 guests, and 70 others present for a total of 950 registered for the meeting.

As there were more than 200 delegates in attendance, the Moderator declared a quorum present. She then announced her appointment of the ushers as tellers and reported that they were being coordinated by the Rev. Dr. Donald Simpson and Ms. Elizabeth Simpson.

Ms. Laurel Baumer, Chair of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, presented the Proposed Standing Rules. It was moved, seconded and voted that "The 194th Annual Meeting adopts the Standing Rules as printed." The Moderator introduced the Parliamentarian, Richard Osterberg, Esq.

Ms. Baumer presented the Proposed Order of Time and Events. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "The 194th Annual Meeting adopts the Proposed Order of Time and Events as printed."

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Mr. Bennie E. Whiten, Jr., Conference Minister and President, who presented his proposed list of honorary delegates to the meeting. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "The 194th Annual Meeting designates the following persons as honorary delegates with voice, but not vote: Mr. John Buck, Dr. Ruy Costa; the Rev. Mr. Alan Johnson; the Rev. Ms. Martha McMane; the Rev. Mr. George Sullivan Davis; and the Rev. Dr. Barbara Brown Zikmund."

After noting the Secretary's report in the Advance Reports, the Moderator introduced the Rev. Ms. Marilyn Rossier, Chair of the Nominating Committee. Ms. Rossier announced that 81 persons were being nominated for positions within the Conference. She explained the procedure necessary to place additional names in nomination.

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Mr. Alan Johnson and the Rev. Ms. Martha McMane, Secretaries for Evangelism and Membership Growth at the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. Mr. Johnson and Ms. McMane gave the first of three dramatic presentations on the theme of the Annual Meeting. In this contribution they lifted up the place of storytelling in the formation of faith and shared several stories in word and song.

Mr. John Ober, Chair of the Board of Directors, was introduced. In his report, Mr. Ober reviewed some of the labors of the Board during the past year, lifting up the work done on a proposed endowment policy, the study of a possible capital fund campaign, the work of the OCWM Basic Support/Fellowship Dues Committee, the accomplishments of a task force for the evaluation of the educational ministries of the Conference, the calling of an Associate Conference Minister for the Western Area, and the nearly completed work of the Covenant Issues Committee. He closed by speaking of some of the highlights of the work done by the executive staff of the Conference.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Arthur Stock, a member of the Board of Directors, and Mr. Rufus Cushman, Director of Planned Giving for Massachusetts and Rhode Island, to present an interpretation of the proposed Endowment Policy for the Massachusetts Conference. They explained that it was hoped that such a policy would expand local and wider mission, offer greater confidence to potential donors, and generate greater funds for Conference use now and in the future. The proposal offers four different choices for endowment gifts and names the Massachusetts Congregational Fund as custodian of the endowment funds. Debate and voting on the proposed policy was announced for Saturday morning.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Blair Brown, a member of the Board of Directors, who offered an explanation of the upcoming vote on Consideration of a Capital Campaign. Mr. Brown enumerated the steps to be taken during the coming year should the 194th Annual Meeting vote to undertake such a consideration: develop a case statement, determine a goal, establish a calendar or timeline, choose a capital fund counsel, and determine the costs of such a campaign. The determination to carry out such a campaign or to decline to carry out such a campaign would then be made by the 195th Annual Meeting. Debate and voting on the proposed consideration was scheduled for Saturday morning.

After announcements, the Rev. Mr. Robert Wright, Jr., Vice Moderator, recessed the meeting until 8:30 AM on Saturday, June 19, 1993.

Saturday, June 19, 1993

The Vice Moderator reconvened the Annual Meeting at 8:30 AM and called upon the Rev. Mr. George Sullivan Davis, a member of the Christian Church Disciples of Christ and a missionary to Chile, to offer the opening prayer. Speakouts were heard. The Moderator re-introduced Mr. Osterberg, the Parliamentarian. She introduced the clerk, Ms. Joanne Bickford; the timekeepers, Mr. John Glone and the Rev. Mr. Eliot Howard; and the interpreter for the hearing impaired, Ms. Marion Butland.

Ms. Diane Ranney, member of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, introduced the presentation on the results of Friday afternoon's hearings. Hearing managers summarized the discussions held during that time. It was announced that resolutions would be taken up in the order in which they were received.

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Dr. Barbara Brown Zikmund, president of Hartford Seminary and professor of American Religious History, who offered the keynote address, "I Love To Tell The Story: Some Personal Reflections on the United Church of Christ." Dr. Brown Zikmund called the United Church of Christ an "encompassing church," one with limits, but one that "leaves the determination of these limits to God." She offered several ways in which the climate of the United Church of Christ might be nourished. The address was followed by a song break led by Ms. McMane.

After recognizing those members of the Massachusetts Conference who serve on national boards, committees, and instrumentalities, the Moderator called upon Mr. Sydney Neal, Treasurer, to give his report. Mr. Neal reviewed his three years as Treasurer and eight years of involvement with the financial life of the Conference, citing the upgrading of the reporting systems, the more complete knowledge of the financial picture, and the tighter control of the budget now. He assured the Annual Meeting that the financial workings of the Conference were in capable hands with the financial team that is now in place. Mr. Neal emphasized that unless the pattern of support for the Conference and the national church changes, the cycle of downsizing will continue. He indicated that although the problems may be financial, the issues are those of faith and covenant. The covenant, stated Mr. Neal, is between the local congregations and clergy who make up the Massachusetts Conference and that covenant must be honored.

The Rev. Mr. Kent Allen, Chair of the Board's Goal Development and Resource Allocation Committee; Mr. Arthur Stock, Chair of the Board's Resource Development and Management Committee; and the Rev. Mr. Stephen Gray, Associate Conference Minister for Stewardship and Financial Development, presented the budget proposals for 1994. These proposals reflect the fact that the recession continues to take its toll and erode the local churches and the Conference. There has been a decline in current local expenses and in total Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) giving for the first time in 19 years. Local churches were challenged to make OCWM Basic Support giving a priority in their budgeting processes.

The Moderator then called on Mr. Stock to present the proposed endowment policy for the Conference. It was moved, seconded and voted that

The 194th Annual Meeting authorizes the Board of Directors to expend up to $40,000 from general undesignated funds to prepare a needs statement and to recommend a financial goal, a strategy and cost estimates for a capital funds campaign to be presented at the 195th Annual Meeting.

Mr. Whiten addressed the Annual Meeting, giving his report of the Conference. He began with thankfulness to God and for the delegates of Annual Meeting, the local churches, the clergy, the local church members, the staff, and the faithfulness of all. Mr. Whiten presented an overview of some of the issues with which he, the executive staff, and the Board of Directors have been concerned in the past year: covenantal issues, violence, faith, local church problems, ethical misconduct, property and liability insurance and budgetary issues. He challenged those present to reach beyond the "business as usual" approach and to envision what might be if proposed goals were met. He asked that delegates think now about what the Conference might look like in the future, in 1999 when the Massachusetts Conference celebrates its 200th anniversary.

Mr. Whiten honored those people who were celebrating 50 years of ordained ministry in 1993. The Rev. Mr. Charles Crooker, the Rev. Mr. J. Stanley Dahlgren, the Rev. Mr. Justin Hartman, and the Rev. Mr. Stephen Turrell were called forward to be recognized. Mr. Whiten also acknowledged the Rev. Mr. Robert Heigham, the Rev. Mr. Forrest Higgins, the Rev. Dr. William Knox, and the Rev. Mr. W. Arthur Rice who could not be present. Mr. Whiten then recognized those people who had been ordained within the past year.

The afternoon plenary session was called to order by the Vice Moderator. After speakouts, the Moderator called upon Ms. Rossier who reported for the Nominating Committee. As there were no further nominations from the floor, it was moved, seconded, and voted that nominations be closed. Election was scheduled for Sunday morning. The Nominating Committee then made a presentation to the Annual Meeting highlighting the many opportunities there are to serve on Conference committees, commissions and boards.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Robert Tongue, Chair of the Commission on Educational Ministries and Chair of the Educational Ministries Evaluation Task Force. Mr. Tongue reported on the work of the task force in response to a resolution from the 193rd Annual Meeting. He cited many of the new resources available to local churches through the educational ministries programs of the Conference, including the Christian Educator Newsletter, the Christian Education Round Tables, and new networking of local church educators. The task force has concluded that Christian education is a vital and integral part of the Conference, that the various components are satisfactorily coordinated and that there is excitement about future additions to the agenda of the Commission on Educational Ministries.

Mr. Tongue then announced the names of those Christian educators in the Massachusetts Conference who had recently earned certification through the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. He then presented the 1993 Outstanding Educator Awards to Ms. Diane Chadzey and the Rev. Mr. William Fleming.

Ms. Jeannette Boynton, Dr. Joyce Gibson, the Rev. Mr. Edward Walker, and the Rev. Mr. Charles Barnes reviewed the work of the OCWM Basic Support/Fellowship Dues Study Committee and explained the proposals that grew out of that study to the Annual Meeting. Debate and voting on those proposals was set for Sunday morning.

Mr. Whiten narrated an audiovisual presentation which introduced the staff of the Massachusetts Conference to the Annual Meeting.

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Mr. Kenneth Landall, a member of the Commission for Stewardship and Mission Interpretation. Mr. Landall and the Area Ministers presented certificates of appreciation to those congregations whose contributions to Our Church's Wider Mission increased by the largest percentages throughout the Conference.

Mr. Johnson and Ms. McMane offered their second presentation which included songs, stories and personal faith journeys.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Allen and Mr. Stock to present actions related to the budget of the Massachusetts Conference. It was moved, seconded, and voted that

APPENDIX A

THE ENDOWMENT POLICY OF THE
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH'S WITNESS

Summary

Prudent investment of gifts and keeping faith with the donors' wishes on uses are essential elements of a successful endowment policy. The church must be clear about its intentions and have a custodian in whom donors will have confidence. While these concerns can be addressed in the gift instruments of those making substantial gifts, the wider church should open the opportunity for contributing financially to members who are not able to make large gifts, and give to these donors the same assurance of constant stewardship.

Many of the faithful desire a greater specificity in the use of their gifts and a policy on distribution that is both beneficial to the Conference Board of Directors in meeting its annual needs and mindful of those who come after us.

This endowment policy attempts to avoid the conflicting definitions of what is income and what is endowment by recommending a multiple fund strategy which permits flexibility in these matters and a policy of investing by objectives which reduces the pressure on investing in order to maximize ordinary income.

This Endowment Policy clarifies the church's stewardship of gifts so that its mission may be strengthened. This Endowment Policy calls the Massachusetts Congregational Fund to serve as the custodian of gifts and the manager of investments. It will have the primary responsibility for the faithful implementation of the responsibilities of this policy.

I. THE POLICY

A. Purpose of an Endowment Policy

The guidelines in this policy are to be followed in the receipt, investment, and distribution of financial gifts, bequests and contributions to the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ received after July 1, 1993. The primary objective for the management of these gifts is to provide resources for the needs of the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts and in the world, now and in the future. It is the intention of the Massachusetts Conference that these gifts will be handled with care and prudence so that there may be confidence in those who give and in the institutions of the Conference who shall enjoy the benefits of these gifts.

As used in this statement of policy, endowment funds are funds whose principal is intended to be preserved indefinitely or until the occurrence of a specific event. The guidelines and instructions herein are intended to give flexibility to donors and the custodian in establishing spending policies and in defining intended uses. By establishing a multiple fund strategy the custodian and donors may establish funds with clear restrictions on spending and other funds with more flexible spending policies. They may establish funds that will have no spending for a period of years, and funds that may be spent to exhaustion upon the occurrence of a specified event. Within the confines of this policy, there is flexibility for establishing a variety of uses for particular endowment funds.

B. Theological Basis for Giving

When we follow the God revealed in Jesus Christ, we follow the One who gave us everything. For the Christian, giving is a central way in which the love for God and neighbor is demonstrated. In the giving of money, possessions and other things of value, we reveal what we believe. "Where your treasure is, there is your heart also." (Matthew 6:21).

Our treasure is not limited to current income. It includes all of the accumulated assets on loan to us for our lifetimes. In giving from present income and in making a plan for giving through our wills, trusts and life income agreements, we demonstrate what it means to have experienced the joy of Christian living.

C. Use of Gifts: A Multiple Fund Strategy

This endowment policy adopts a multiple fund strategy consisting of a series of funds that are distinguished by different designated uses. The funds shall be of four types:

1. Endowment Funds for the Support of the Massachusetts Conference.

For example, a General Unrestricted Endowment Fund, which shall be used for the administrative support services and other resources for the maintenance of the community of UCC churches and ministers in Massachusetts.

Minutes

2. Mission Endowment Funds

For example, several funds for implementation of a Mission Plan approved by the Annual Meeting of the Conference such as a fund for new church development, a fund for the poor, a fund for housing and retraining, a fund for prison ministries, a fund for college ministries, a fund for famine and hunger, a fund for Christian education, or a fund for camps and conferences.

3. Endowment Funds Restricted by Donor Directions

For example, a fund established by a donor that designates its income be spent in a particular activity. These funds likely will be named after the donor. Specific terms of such gifts will be developed in consultations with the Donor. The establishment of such a fund would require a significant gift.

4. Funds held for the benefit of specific local churches and organizations affiliated with the Massachusetts Conference.

For example, a gift to be held in trust by the Conference for the benefit of a member church. This Endowment Policy is not intended to discourage gifts to the local church; the willingness of the Conference's custodian to serve as the trustee of these gifts may in certain instances encourage strengthening the local church.

All funds shall be open to additional gifts, except those donor funds that have been designated as closed to other gifts.

D. Receiving Gifts and Establishing Funds

The custodian shall establish reasonable procedures for the receipt of gifts. The custodian shall have the authority to decline gifts deemed too difficult or burdensome to administer. Gifts of real estate are subject to terms acceptable to the custodian.

The establishment of a fund shall be recommended by the Conference Board of Directors subject to acceptance by the custodian. The custodian may decline establishment of a fund on grounds of administrative feasibility.

To establish or accept a fund for a specific beneficiary, the recipient must be an officially recognized affiliate of the Massachusetts Conference, unless the Conference Board of Directors makes a specific exception. The spending of distributions from a Fund for Mission must be for an activity that fulfills the stated purpose of the fund and in accordance with the Mission Plan. The grantees must agree to use the funds for the purposes proposed. While secular agencies may be grantees, priority shall be given to church related agencies and institutions.

E. Custody, Investment and Distributions

The custodian of gifts shall be charged with the following responsibilities: (1) the investment of funds, (2) the distribution of funds according to the declared uses and instructions from the Conference Board of Directors, (3) maintaining proper accounting of the funds received and distributed, and (4) making annual reports on its responsibilities to the Annual Meeting and participating churches.

The custodian should have the authority to hire attorneys, accountants, custodians and professional investment managers, and the authority to charge administrative fees, if advisable.

The various funds are kept separate through accounting, but the monies may be deposited in one or more pooled investment accounts, thereby allowing smaller funds to enjoy the advantages of professional asset management.

With respect to investing, the custodian is encouraged to adopt a multiple investment strategy using professional asset managers. The custodian shall be responsive to the wishes of the Annual Meeting on matters of socially responsible investing.

The custodian shall designate the minimum size gift necessary for the establishment of a fund. The amount necessary to establish a donor designated fund or a fund for a specific church or organization shall be negotiated. Challenge gifts for seeding new funds may be useful. Seed money donors may stipulate by agreement with the custodian that the fund shall make no distribution until it reaches a certain size. Lacking an individual donor, the Conference Board of Directors may choose to provide the seed money gift in order to start the fund.

1. Investment Objective. The investment policy is established with a clear-cut objective of maximum long term total return having a due regard for risk and compliance with the policies on socially conscious investing as adopted by the Annual Meeting. Included in this objective is the maintenance of the purchasing power of the gifts received.
2. Levels of Distributions. The policy on distributions shall be established by the custodian for all funds except where designated otherwise in donor designated funds or where the terms of gifts for the benefit of a particular church or affiliated organization direct that the beneficiary (or donor) shall determine such policy.

In establishing levels of distribution and reinvestment, the total return of the investments shall be considered. Determination of amounts to be distributed and to be reinvested for each fund should harmonize the following interests: the expectation of the recipient to a reasonable share of the return annually; the need of the recipient for predictability in the size and dates of distribution; the need to augment sufficiently the funds under investment so as to maintain the purchasing power of the distributions; and the desire to enhance the size of the fund so as to strengthen the fund's reach.

F. Distributions from all Funds

The custodian should establish regular dates, preferably quarterly, for making distributions. The custodian may establish a reserve account in order to achieve a more even level of distributions.

G. Use of Distributions from Mission Endowment Funds: Selection of Recipients for Mission

Distributions from Mission Endowment Funds shall be in accordance with the Mission Plan. Mission Plans shall be recommended by the Conference Board of Directors and presented to the Annual Meeting of the Conference for approval, commencing in 1994, subject to availability of funds.

In developing a Mission Plan, the Conference Board of Directors shall be guided by the priorities of the General Synod of the United Church of Christ, the goals and strategies of the Conference Board of Directors, and the input on mission from local churches and ministers. Each Mission Plan shall expire in three years, unless renewed. Amendments at the Annual Meeting to a recommended Mission Plan shall require a two-thirds vote. A Mission Plan may include commitments for up to three years. Amendments to the Mission Plan recommended by the Conference Board of Directors may be approved at any Annual Meeting. The Conference Board of Directors shall report annually to the Annual Meeting on the implementation of the Mission Plan.

The Conference Board of Directors shall hold distributions from Mission Endowment Funds in Expendable Restricted Fund balances or in Expendable Unrestricted Fund balances designated as to purpose by the Board of Directors or the Annual Meeting. All spending of these fund balances shall be in accordance with the particular Mission Plan. The Conference Board of Directors shall designate Mission Plan managers to oversee the use of the distributions.

H. Governance

Administration and investment management shall be under the supervision of a custodian. The custodian may not be a beneficiary. A majority of the governing body of the custodian shall be experienced and trained in the administration of property belonging to others and in the investment of assets. The governing body shall also have adequate representation of the church. The governing body shall be responsible for the faithful execution of its responsibilities.

I. Amendments and Modifications

The Conference Board of Directors in consultation with the custodian shall have the authority to modify and amend these guidelines from time to time, but shall not have the authority to alter the terms of a previous gift except to the extent such authority was created in the gift instrument.

II. IMPLEMENTATION

The Annual Meeting calls the Massachusetts Congregational Fund, a charitable entity by Act of the General Court, to become the custodian of gifts. The Annual Meeting asks the Massachusetts Congregational Fund to:

- (1) Establish accounts, in collaboration with the Massachusetts Conference Board of Directors, as required by the multiple fund strategy.
- (2) Serve as trustee, investment manager and custodian of the accounts established under the multiple fund strategy.
- (3) Be guided by this Endowment Policy in the receiving, investing, administering and distributions from investments.
- (4) Modify the process of electing members of the corporation so that five shall be the nominees of the Conference Board of Directors, two of whom shall have experience in planned giving and three of whom shall have significant experience with the life of the church.
- (5) Make such changes in its By-Laws as may be necessary to accomplish these purposes. An additional recommended change is the establishment of reasonable limits on the number of terms its members and officers may serve, and the length of a term of membership at four years.

The Minister and President is to provide whatever support is necessary in implementation.
- B. The 194th Annual Meeting approves a formula for computation of Fellowship Dues which will be increased annually at a rate no greater than the average increase of the current local expenses of all congregations in the Conference over the previous three years. The new rate will be approved annually by the Annual Meeting as required by the Conference Bylaws.

III. GIVING GUIDELINES

The 194th Annual Meeting approves the following giving and remittance guidelines and commends them to local churches, their members and treasurers, and to the Massachusetts Conference.

Giving By Members To Local Churches

- A. Individuals are encouraged to contribute to the work of their church an amount no less than 2.5 % of their gross income. A challenge goal is to contribute an amount equal to 10 % of gross income, as advocated by General Synod 14.
- B. Individuals are challenged to give in proportion to their means (1 Corinthians 16:2) and to increase their giving 1/2 % to 1 % per year.
- C. Individuals are challenged to give the church priority in philanthropic giving, mindful that the church is solely dependent on its own members for support.
- D. Individuals are reminded of God's claim on their accumulated assets and are encouraged to remember the church in their will or through life income gifts.

Giving By Local Churches To The Wider Church

- A. Each local church is encouraged to devote an amount equal to at least 10 % of its current local expenditures to Total Mission Giving (i.e. all benevolences and charitable contributions of the local church). A challenge goal is to give to Total Mission Giving an amount equal to at least 25 % of its current local expenses. Churches are encouraged to grow toward these goals at an annual rate of 1/4 % to 1/2 % of current local expenditures.
- B. If a local church experiences an increase in its current local expenses from one year to the next, at least 10 % of the increase should be devoted to Total Mission Giving.
- C. Local churches are challenged to devote at least 50 % of their Total Mission Giving to Basic Support, Our Church's Wider Mission. A challenge goal is to give at least 75 % of Total Mission Giving to Basic Support, Our Church's Wider Mission. Churches are encouraged to grow toward these goals at an annual rate of 1/4 % to 1/2 %.
- D. In deciding where to send the balance of Total Mission Giving, local churches are encouraged to give priority to United Church of Christ related seminaries, special offerings and provide support for at least one UCC mission society, college and health and welfare institution officially related to the Massachusetts Conference. The 11th General Synod suggested that local churches provide support for UCC-related seminaries equal to 2 % of current local expenses.

Giving By The Conference to the Wider Church

The Massachusetts Conference is challenged to increase its support of the wider United Church of Christ by reducing its retention of Basic Support, Our Church's Wider Mission from the current 33 % level to 30 % by the year 2005.

Remittance Guidelines

- A. The Massachusetts Conference will make every effort to disburse funds sent to the national United Church of Christ and other mission agencies on a monthly basis.
- B. Associations are encouraged to remit Fellowship Dues payments on a quarterly basis.
- C. Local churches are encouraged to remit payments to Basic Support, Our Church's Wider Mission on a monthly or quarterly basis.
- D. Individuals and families are encouraged to deposit their offerings on a weekly or monthly basis.

APPENDIX C RESOLUTION ON INTERNATIONAL ARMS TRADE AND NEED FOR CONVERSION OF ARMS MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES

WHEREAS we are called to be peacemakers; and given the image of beating our swords into plowshares; and

WHEREAS one of the greatest obstacles to peace in the world is the proliferation and trading of arms, $860 billion dollars worth traded in 1991 alone, these arms thereby exacerbating local conflicts and historic animosities; and

WHEREAS the United States has, for several years, been the foremost seller of arms in the world: in 1991, the United States government authorized the sale of $63 billion worth of weapons; and

WHEREAS the "Cold War" has ended, but the United States continues to spend in excess of $100 billion a year in defense of places like western Europe and Japan, traditional strongholds against Soviet aggression; and

WHEREAS the conversion of existing arms manufacturing has been consistently resisted by the manufacturers and not encouraged by state and federal government bodies and officials; and

WHEREAS parts of the United States economy successfully converted to peacetime production after World War II, some as a result of deliberate planning and encouragement by government; and

WHEREAS this and other examples from history have shown that the conversion to peacetime manufacturing by existing weapons producers can be done without overall loss of jobs and need not be detrimental to local economies or trade balances;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 194th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

1. goes on record as being opposed to the authorization of the selling of arms to foreign nations or individuals by United States manufacturers, thus affirming our historic belief in peacemaking and our vision of the Reign of God;
2. urges our state and national governments to proceed with due haste and imagination with a program for the conversion of existing weapons industries to the production of much needed energy efficient consumer goods and other environmentally sound devices, and programs for the repair of our physical and social infrastructure.
3. urges Governor Weld to proceed with the appointment of the Diversification Advisory Committee as called for by Chapter 525 of the Acts of 1990 of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Massachusetts legislature to pass H.3129, the Economic Conversion Initiative, for the sake of converting Massachusetts based defense industries to peaceful production;
4. encourages individuals to join or form local grass-roots coalitions that are considering the ramifications and planning for diversification in the local communities;
5. urges individuals, churches, Associations and the Conference to communicate this resolution to Governor Weld and members of the state legislature at the State House, Boston, MA 02133;
6. sends this resolution for adoption at the 1993 General Synod containing editorial changes appropriate for adoption by a national body.

APPENDIX D RESOLUTION ON THE CHURCH'S CARE FOR ADDICTED PEOPLE

WHEREAS we acknowledge that the problem of addiction — the development of a pathological dependence on a mood altering substance or behavior — is a national problem of epidemic proportion; that its causes are complex and multi-faceted; and that its effects on the addict, the addict's family, and those whose lives the addicted behavior impacts can be far reaching and traumatic; and

WHEREAS we acknowledge that addictions to drugs, alcohol, sex, food, and gambling are illnesses that strike not only the laity, but that clergy and their families also struggle to come to terms with these dysfunctional patterns of living; and

WHEREAS we confess that our response as a community of faith to the needs of those who suffer from various forms of addiction has not always been faithful to the Christ who told us "in as much as you have done it to the least of these, you have done it to Me." We confess that too often we have responded with condemnation rather than compassion and with ignorance rather than understanding; and

WHEREAS we acknowledge that such response has left spiritual scars on the souls of addicted persons and their families, making it difficult for them to respond to the spiritual demands of recovery and to develop a trust in the care of God; and

WHEREAS we remember with gratitude those we know and have known whose recovery from various forms of addiction made them "Wounded Healers" in our communities and our churches; leading us gratefully to affirm what they and the 12-Step tradition have to teach the church about acceptance, healing, and spiritual discipline; and

Minutes

WHEREAS we understand that as the People of God we are called to take a redemptive role in the pain and suffering of our world;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 194th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon the Commission for Local Church Life and Renewal to sponsor a task force representative of that Commission, the Commission on Educational Ministries, the Commission for Leadership Development, as well as representatives of local congregations, to design specific action for recommendations to the 195th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, to achieve the following goals in relation to the church's care for addicted persons:

1. to educate clergy and congregations concerning the issues of addiction;
2. to reach out as a community of faith to the addict who still suffers, as well as their families, with understanding and compassion;
3. to support community programs which deal with the needs of those who struggle with addiction;
4. to develop and implement compassionate, intelligent modes of outreach and care for clergy who need, or are in, recovery as well as the congregations they serve and the families in which they live; and
5. to work to ensure that our churches, our judicatories, and our denominationally related colleges and seminaries are safe places for persons in recovery; to the end that their recovery may be, not a liability to be hidden from those they fear would judge them, but a strength to be shared with the whole People of God.

APPENDIX E

GUIDELINES FOR CALLED AND INTERIM CLERGY COMPENSATION 1994

(for use with Guidelines for Clergy Compensation booklet from the Conference Office)

The 194th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, commends the effort of the local churches in endeavoring to reach the goals recommended in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1993. These are minimum recommendations. They apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants.

The 194th Annual meeting recommends that:

- (1) churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary of $19,620 for a full-time pastor and minimum salaries as listed below in B;¹
- (2) churches not at the minimum salary work toward the minimum and also at improving C, D, and E, below;
- (3) churches reimburse fully all professional expenses;
- (4) churches already at or above the minimum and also providing for C through F give at least a cost-of-living increase and consider a merit increase.
- (5) the work schedule of local pastors be a maximum average of twelve units per week with no more than three evenings in any given week; in addition that pastors take off at least three consecutive days each month.²

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service, special skills, and training and including annual cost-of-living increases. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy and the compensation package can be designated in a way to maximize the pastor's income.³

B. MINIMUM CASH SALARY

The minimum cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be as follows:

of Church Members	yrs. experience
	0 - 3	4 - 10	over 10
up to 300	19,620	21,220	22,830
301-500	19,620	22,700	26,250
501-1000	19,620	24,270	30,000
over 1000	19,620	25,780	33,980

Therefore, if a pastor of ten years' ordination/experience arrives at a congregation with 375 members, she or he should receive a base salary of not less than $22,700 (recognizing certain regional variations).

Minutes

C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

The church should provide an amount equal to at least one-half the effective self-employment SS tax liability of each clergyperson. This allowance is taxable income but will ease the burden of the big Social Security tax.

D.* HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

- (1) a furnishings allowance¹, all utilities, and an equity development plan for those living in a parsonage; OR
- (2) a housing allowance including furnishings and utilities for those who rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS THAT PROVIDE:

- (1) a pension plan, with a church contribution of 14% of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage, or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;
- (2) a family protection plan, including disability insurance, which is an additional 1% of the base used for the annuity;
- (3) group life insurance which costs $50 per year;
- (4) medical and health insurance, plus dental care;
- (5) continuing education funding;
- (6) sabbatical education funding;
- (7) holiday and vacation time;
- (8) maternity/paternity paid leave (including adoption).

F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

The new tax law allows the deduction of business expenses only on Schedule A and any stated allowance for these items must be included in income. Most taxpayers no longer itemize since higher deductions are given to everyone. Therefore, it is important that churches reimburse, or pay directly, all of the costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expense. Included but not limited to:

- (1) books and professional subscriptions;
- (2) professional memberships;
- (3) travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimbursement);
- (4) any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry.

¹ The recommended cash salary base and the grid in section B show an increase of 3.0% over that which was adopted in 1993. The cost of living index for 1992 increased by 3.0%

² A unit is a morning, afternoon, or evening

³ See Tax Planning for Clergy, Manfred Holck, Jr., Church Management Inc., P.O. Box 1625, Austin, TX 78767.

⁴ According to the IRS, "housing" includes furnishings and the miscellaneous running expenses (everything except food and maid service) of a home, including appurtenances such as garage, sidewalks, and front and back yards.
